DEATH OF W. DUKE

Wealthy Philanthropist Passes Away Full of Years and Honors

HEAD OF AMERICAN TOBACCO CO.

The Founder of the Duke Branch of The American Tobacco Company Dies at Durham in the 85th Year of His Age—His Three Sons and Other Relatives Were Present When the End Came.

Durham, N. C., Special.—Washington Duke, founder of the Duke branch of the American Tobacco Company, father of J. B. Duke, president of that company, and philanthropist, who directly and indirectly gave more than a million dollars to Trinity College, died Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. His death was no surprise. For several weeks he had been close to death's door, and Sunday afternoon began to sink rapidly. All Sunday night it was expected that the next minute would be his last. Monday morning he was weak and sinking. When he passed away, his three sons, B. L., B. N., and J. B. Duke, with other relatives, were gathered by his bedside. He was in the 85th year of his age. He was part of the history of Durham, and his death has cast a gloom over the entire city.

The funeral services will be conducted from Main Street Methodist church, of which he was a member, at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the body will be laid to rest in the Duke mausoleum, at Maplewood Cemetery. The funeral services will be conducted by Dr. John C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, and Dr. E. A. Yates, and Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of the church. Full details and arrangements have not been made for the funeral as yet.

Through Mr. Duke and his influence, there has been given to Trinity College, a million dollars or more. His first great gift was when the college was moved here in 1891, when he gave $150,000. Other gifts followed, until his personal gifts amounted to more than a half-million dollars. His sons and other relatives added to these gifts until the amount is now more than a million dollars. One gift of $100,000 from the deceased, opened the doors of Trinity and other State colleges to women.

Some time ago he divided a large part of his wealth among his relatives. It is learned that the greater part of the wealth went to B. N. and J. B. Duke. In addition to these gifts, he gave to each of his grandchildren, some eight or ten in number, $60,000 each.

Practically all factories in this community closed upon hearing of the death of Mr. Duke. Other business houses will be closed when the funeral takes place. It is supposed that the city officials and business men in general will join to do honor to the man who has done so much for the town of Durham and the State.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Born on December 20, 1820, Washington Duke would have been 85 years of age had he lived until December of this year. He was the last of his immediate family, which was a large one, and spent all his life in this section of the State. He came from New England stock, but his father spent most of his life in this State, the family having been identified with the affairs of this section since colonial days.

The deceased was one of nine children, six boys and three girls, and up until he had passed middle life they were people not used to the great luxuries of life brought by wealth, but had to struggle like all of the early settlers of this State and section, for the material things of life. It was under conditions of this kind that Washington Duke and his brothers and sisters came into this life. These early surroundings taught that frugality and developed the strong, positive character and self-reliance that in later life made him the great man that he was. Beginning life with absolutely nothing save a strong character and powerful will; his education being that he learned from nature and between the plow handles on a poor farm in Orange county (now Durham), he returned from the struggle of the Civil War, to a poverty-stricken section of the country, his only assets being character, poverty and a family to support. In the forty years that now intervene between the present and that struggle, he has builded a name that is known around the world and accumulated wealth that he has used to blesis lated wealth that he used to bless and nobler.

Washington Duke was the son of Taylor Duke, was born near Bahama, Orange county, now in Durham. He resided there until he had attained his majority and then moved to a small farm about three miles from Durham, which he afterwards owned, and there began the tobacco manufacturing business, the neuclus that formed the great American Tobacco Company. His five brothers were: Messrs. Robert, Brodie, Kirkland, William J. and John Duke. His sisters were: Mrs. Amelia Riggs, Mrs. Rena Clinton and Miss Malinda Duke, who was never married. From these have sprung a large number of descendants, who live in many parts of this and other States.

Investigating Oil Industry.

Beaumont, Tex., Special.—James R. Garfield, Commissioner of the Bureau of Corporations of the Department of Commerce and Labor, arrived in this city Monday. Mr. Garfield will investigate conditions in the oil field here. His work was preliminary, paving the way for his assistants, who will conclude the investigations. Mr. Garfield left for Washington, having been absent eight weeks.

NORTH CAROLINA CROP BULLETIN

Weather Conditions Given Out by the Department Observer.

The past week has been exceptionally favorable for the rapid germination of seeds and the growth of vegetation. The temperature continued uniformly but not excessively high, the mean for the week being about 70 degrees, or 3 degrees daily above the normal. The early portion of the week was fair and sunny, but after the 3rd showers were frequent, keeping the air and soil moist and highly favorable for the growth of crops. Generally the precipitation was moderate in amount and beneficial, but in a number of counties the rains were frequent and farm work was interrupted, as the soil was too wet to plow. In a few western counties, notably Madison, Davie and Wilkes, heavy, washing rains, in some instances with hail, occurred on the 5th with considerable damage to crops and land locally. Rapid progress in planting and cultivating crops continued during the early portion of the week, but was discontinued in most of the central and southern counties after Wednesday. In some sections on account of the very rapid growth of vegetation grass and weeds are beginning to be a little troublesome.

Planting corn continued during the week, especially on uplands in the west; lowlands are at present too wet to plant; corn is coming up remarkably well, and good stands seem assured everywhere; cultivation of young corn is proceeding; the only damage so far reported to corn by insects results from ravages by cut worms in several counties, chiefly in the west. Planting cotton made favorable progress early in the week, though interrupted towards the close; planting is about finished in the south portion; the seeds are germinating with unusual rapidity, and good stands seem assured; chopping is about to begin; cotton is getting a little grassy in a few counties, and warm dry weather would be beneficial now. The showers this week gave the farmers a favorable opportunity to transplant tobacco, and where the plants were large enough, and the land prepared, a large portion of the crop was set out; this work will be general during the next week or two.

Wheat, oats and rye continued to grow rapidly, and are beginning to form heads; six correspondents report damage to wheat by hessian fly, showing the very limited injury by this pest for the present season. Spring oats, clover and grasses are also in flourishing condition; clover and pastures are ready to mow. Truck crops and gardens have improved; the shipment of peas has begun; Irish potatoes are generally fine and are being hilled in the east. The damp weather is having a rather unfavorable effect on fruit, favoring fungus growth. Strawberries are ripening too rapidly, and as the crop is a large one the transportation facilities seem inadequate.

Rains reported (in inches): Asheville 1.50; Charlotte 3.10; Goldsboro 1.10; Greensboro 4.29; Hatteras 0.30; Lumberton 0.64; Marion 1.28; Moncure 0.60; Nashville 0.32; Newbern 1.92; Raleigh 1.44; Ramseur 1.71; Southport 1.85; Wilmington 2.40; Weldon 0.18.

Car Famine Relieved.

Wilmington, Special.—The refrigerator car famine was greatly relieved Monday. With Sunday intervening and rain Monday, the shipments offered were not nearly so large and the transportation people were better able to handle everything. One hundred and six cars passed through South Rocky Mount Sunday, and an additional 27 Monday. It is believed that fully 125 cars went forward from the belt, and will be included in the Rocky Mount count.

New Enterprises.

A charter is issued for the Union Mining Company, of Monroe; capital, $25,000, subscribed by J. M. Fairley and others.

The charter of the Bank of Lincolnton is amended so as to authorize an increase in the capital stock from $10,000 to $50,000. B. F. Griggs is president.

Crooks to be Held.

Governor Glenn decided Monday morning that he will hold the Wadesboro crooks to answer the charge of carrying concealed weapons in Anson county instead of turning them over to the South Carolina authorities, where they are wanted for breaking into the Heath-Springs Bank. The Governor's action in holding the men in this State instead of honoring the requisition from South Carolina is at the suggestion of the Governor of South Carolina made in a letter written in response to a communication from Governor Glenn, laying before the South Carolina chief executive the situation.

Confessed Murder of Woman.

Roanoke, Special.—"Doc" Watson, colored, wanted at Kimball, W. Va., for the murder of Cora Lackey, colored, who was shot and killed in her home on Easter Sunday night, was arrested here by police officer Burnett and is now in the Roanoke City Jail. After the arrest he confessed the crime West Virginia Authorities will come here for Watson as soon as the necessary papers can be obtained.

HERO LAID TO REST

All That Was Mortal of General Fitzhugh Lee Placed Under the Sod

WAS BURIED WITH GREAT HONOR

State Militia, Veterans' Organizations, School Boys, Clergy, State and City Officials, Memorial Associations and Distinguished Visitoors Formed the Procession From St. Paul's to Hollywood Cemetery, Passing Between Sidewalks Lined With Spectators.

Richmond, Va., Special.—Not in all its eventful history has Richmond witnessed a more imposing demonstration than that which marked Thursday the funeral of General Fitzhugh Lee. Troops were pouring into the city all night ,and the military contingent which took part in the procession consisted of two full regiments of infantry, the Seventh and Seventy-first, the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, a battalion of artillery and seven detached infantry companies, making in all about 2,000 men. Added to this were the veteran organizations, and nearly every carriage in the city had been engaged for the occasion. By noon the business section was practically deserted. Around St. Paul's church, in which the funeral services were held, there was a dense throng, and from there to Hollywood the sidewalks along the line of march were lined with spectators.

The church was densely crowded, the throng representing all classes and all walks of life. The services were conducted by Right Rev. A. M. Randolph, bishop of the Southern Virginia Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Beverly Tucker, rector of St. Paul's, Norfolk; the Rev. Landon R. Mason, rector of Grace church, this city, and the Rev. E. E. Barnwell, acting rector of St. Paul's. The floral tributes banked about the casket were profuse and came from all over the country. At the outside of the casket, nearest the audience and at the termination of the main aisle, the Confederate battle flag in flowers gleamed in its field, red with the crossbars of blue bearing the stars of white. A great wreath of white, elevated on a standard of green, shed its perfume directly above the bier. It was four feet in diameter, elevated about six feet, and was made of Easter lilies, white roses, and white sweet peas. The designs were sent by the Veteran Cavalry Association, Army of Northern Virginia. The order of the procession to Hollywood Cemetery was as follows:

Chief marshal and aides, escort, State military, veteran organizations, high school boys, Soldiers' Home veterans, clergy in carriages, honorary pall-bearers, active pall-bearers, caisson with body, family and mourners State officials, city officials, distinguished visitors, memorial associations Richmond fire department, Colored Spanish-American Veterans' Association.

On conclusion of the services at the church the line of march was taken up for the cemetery. The escort included the Seventh and Seventy-first Regiments of Virginia volunteer infantry and a provisional regiment of unattached infantry companies; the Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion, the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, the Richmond Howitzers; the cadets of the Fork-Union Academy, Virginia; Lee and Pickett Camps, Confederate veterans, of Richmond; A. P. Hill Camp, of Charlottesville, of which Gen. Lee was a member, and representatives from almost every other camp in Virginia; the Association of veteran Cavalry, Army of Northern Virginia; Sons of Confederate Veterans; ladies' memorial organizations, Daughters of the Confederacy; aged and infirm veterans from the Confederate Soldiers' Home, in wagonettes; representatives of the Federal, State and city government and of the Jamestown Exposition Company, and distinguished persons from without the Commonwealth. There were 33 military companies in line and the procession was more than a mile long, taking about 35 minutes to pass a given point, the carriages in line being driven two abreast and the military marching in double rank, company front.

At the head of the escort rode ex-Governor Charles T. O'Ferrall, chief marshal, with his aides, and conspicuous in the procession were Governor Warfield, of Maryland, and the Attorney General of his State; the two United States Senators from Virginia, riding side by side in a carriage; Gen. J. W. Hayes, Major R. E. L. Michie, and Col. J. C. Dempsey, United States army, in full dress uniform and Lieutenant Governor Willard, representing Governor Montague, who was prevented by illness from being present.

The casket containing the body of General Lee rested on a handsome catafalque built upon a caisson and was covered with flowers and emblems of the United States and the Confederacy. The caisson was drawn by six black horses with artillery harness and covered by black netting. Holding the bridle of each horse was a member of the Howitzer battery. Behind the caisson was led General Lee's own riding horse, a thorough-bred black stallion with empty saddle and with the upturned boots and the sheathed sword of the dead general. As the body left the church, minute guns were fired by a detachment of the Richmond Howitzers in Capitol Square.

The streets along the line of march were packed with people and at the cemetery many thousands awaited the coming of the procession. There has not been such a popular outpouring since the funeral of Jefferson Davis some year ago, and there were representatives of every part of Virginia in the multitudes that thronged to pay the last tribute of respect to Fitzhugh Lee.

At the cemetery the committal service was read by Bishop Randolph, the body was lowered into the grave, three infantry volleys were fired, taps were sounded and a salute of 17 guns was fired by the Richmond Howitzers from a neighboring height overlooking the historic James river.

HEAVY LOSS ON STRAWBERRIES

Two Hundred Thousand Dollars' Worth of Strawberries Have Rotted at the Chadbourn Depot Since Monday and Been Dumped Into the River.

Chadbourn, Special.— The strawberry season is in full blast here, and the refrigerator cars have given out. The situation is unique and interesting, but deplorable. Thousands of dollars of the finest sort of berries are rotting on the railroad yards. The Atlantic Coast Line had contracted for something like 1,700 refrigerator cars from the Armour Fruit Express Company, and up to date have received about 500. That is the state of affairs in a nutshell. Since Monday at noon $200,000 worth of berries have been hauled to the edge of town and dumped into the river. Hundreds upon hundreds of crates of the freshly gathered berries are perishing every hour. This is true in the face of the fact that 15 or more Northern agents are on the ground ready and eager to pay from 9 to 15 cents a quart for the berries delivered in New York and other markets. The growers are gathering from 15,000 to 20,000 crates a day and turning them over to the station agent here. The Armour concern will be held responsible for the loss and up to date something like $250,000 in claims have been filed.

What is true of Chadbourn is also true of the towns of Ward, Clarendon, Mount Tabor, Homewood and Roseland, on the Conway branch. The Armour icing station is located here, but the cars go to those smaller stations and bring the berries to Chadbourn to be re-iced. The congestion has affected the entire berry section of the State and the loss will be great. Many of the pickers came here from a distance and made contracts with the growers for the berry season, and will not give up a good thing. This is the greatest strawberry section in the country. The fruit is of fine quality and large in size. The Coast Line is losing about $40,000 a day in freights by being unable to get refrigerator cars. The situation is serious and grows more so day by day. No cars are promised before the middle of next week, and by this time the loss will have reached nearly a million dollars.

Wilmington, Special.—Although a considerable portion of the crop has spoiled on the hands of the railway company, and much of the fruit has been delivered on the Northern markets in bad condition in consequence of the refrigerator car famine in the strawberry belt, it is believed that we soon will witness at least a partial relief of the congestion, and that from now on there will be little further, if any, damage. One hundred and three cars passed through South Rocky Mount Saturday, and at least 125 are thought to have gone forward from the various points in the belt. The growers are advised by the association's attorney, J. O. Carr, Esq., of this city, to continue to gather the berries and tender them to the railway company for shipment just as if the cars were on the sidetrack ready to move them, and to report any refusal of bills of lading. Attorneys and special agents of the Armour refrigerator line are throughout the belt adjusting all claims of growers as speedily as possible.

TOGO NOT FEARED

Russian Naval Forces Getting Into Fighting Trim

JUNCTION OF FLEETS IS ASSURED

Naval Officers at St. Petersburg Declare That While Rojestvensky May Lose Half His Convoy, the Japanese Cannot Seriously Oppose the Advance of the United Squadrons to Vladivostock, Where Further Reinforcements wait.

St. Petersburg, By Cable.—Admiral Nebogatoff's junction with Vice Admiral Rojestvensky is now considered by the Admiralty as practically assured, and hope for a successful issue in the approaching struggle for mastery of the sea is greatly encouraged thereby.

Naval officers are prepared to see Rojestvensky lose half his convoy, but in face of the united divisions it is believed that Togo will accomplish little or nothing in the way of opposition to the advance to Vladivostock and that he must be content with the aid of the army, to try and invest by land and sea and make Vladivostock another Port Arthur. If the fleet reaches Vladivostock intact, however, naval officers here claim that victory is won. Although there is a little more than 100,000 tons of coal at Vladivostock, the re-enforcement of the fleet, by the Cromobio, Rossia and Bogatyr, and the torpedo boats and sub-marines now in the harbor there they claim that Rojestvensky could drive Togo off the sea and leave Field Marshal Oyama's army stranded in Manchuria.

Seizes Small Jap Vessel.

Tokio, By Cable.—Four Russian torpedo boat destroyers appeared westward of Hokkaiddo, off Subu, Saturday. They seized and burned a small sailing vessel and imprisoned the captain and disappeared to the northwest. They were evidently returning to Vladivostock. There is a possibility that they have destroyed other small craft, although no reports to that effect have been received.

The object of their visit is not clear. It is thought that probably they hoped to torpedo the Japanese patrol at night, and it is also suggested that the Vladivostock vessels planned a diversion to assist the fleet of Admiral Rojestvensky.

President Bids Farewell.

Glenwood Springs, Col., Special.—President Roosevelt Sunday entertained at dinner his companions on his three weeks' hunt in the Rockies. After the dinner, the President bade them an affectionate farewell and promised that all would live forever in his fondest memory. At the dinner were P. B. Stewart, of Colorado Springs; Dr. Alexander Lambert, of New York; Guides Jacob Borah, John Goff, "Brick" Wells, John Fry and G. M. Sprague; Courier Elmer Chapman, and Secretary Loeb.

In describing the function, Chapman said: "We sat just as we did in camp. Mr. Loeb was the only duke at the party."

Veteran Publisher Dead.

Mobile, Ala., Special.—Col. John Lawrence Rapier, president of the Register Company, died Sunday morning at 2:30 o'clock, aged 66 years. Colonel Rapier fought with distinction in the Confederate service during the Civil War. He was the founder of The Mobile Times, which paper was later merged with The Register. He was a brother of Thomas G. Rapier, editod of The New Orleans Picayune. He is survived by his wife, four sons and one daughter.

Some New Disturbances.

Warsaw, By Cable—This city Sunday celebrated the name day of Empress Alexandra Feodrovna. The Socialist warnings not to display flags was generally disregarded in view of the heavy penalties imposed upon householders who fail to decorate their houses on such occasions. This led to some disturbances, angry mobs tearing down and burning flags at different places. Otherwise the city was quiet.

Fatal Railroad Wreck.

Houston, Texas, Special.—A Galveston, Houston & Northern train, coming from Galveston, left the track at a curve near Harrisburg, shortly before midnight, the engine turning turtle, and taking all of the coaches off. Engineer Frank Cox was cremated under his engine. Fireman Daaneton is missing, and it is believed that he was also burned. While several of the passengers were bruised, none were badly hurt. The coaches were wrecked and caught fire, the train being nearly destroyed by fire. A spreading rail caused the wreck.

First Train Over New Road.

Dublin, Ga., Special.—The first train from Eastman over the Dublin & Southwestern railroad reached Dublin Sunday afternoon. The train consisted of ten solid car loads of freight from Eastman. President Rentz, General Manager Kissler and Superintendent C. E. Renz were on board. It will take a week or more to surface up the track. As soon as that has been accomplished, regular schedules will be put on between Dublin and Eastman.

ANOTHER MISTRIAL

Jury in Nan Patterson Case Failed to Agree on a Verdict

THE SAME RESULT AS FORMERLY

After Nearly 13 Hours' Deliberation, With an Interval For Supper, the Jury Entrusted With the Fate of Caesar Young's Alleged Murderess Proves No More Able Than Its Predecessors to Reach a Verdict.

New York, Special.—At 1:30 o'clock Thursday morning the jury in the case of Nan Patterson, tried for the third time on the charge of murdering Caesar Young, was called into the court room by Recorder Goff. When the 12 men were in their places and the court officials had all arrived, the recorder asked why the defendant had not been brought into court. A deputy sheriff replied that she had been feeling ill and had retired, but was then being dressed. After a wait of 12 minutes, Miss Patterson appeared looking pale and in a highly nervous state.

"Gentlemen, have you been able to reach an agreement?" asked the recorder of the jury.

"No, sir," replied the foreman.

"Is there any question of law or evidence in which I can instruct you? Is there any way in which the court can help you?"

The foreman looked for an instant at his fellowmen, then turning to the recorder, said: "No, sir, I don't believe you can help us."

"Then you will retire to reconsider the matter."

JURY DISCHARGED.

The jury filed out and the court room was cleared. Recorder Goff remained in his chamber ready to receive a verdict if rendered or to further instruct the jury. Upon being assured that there was no chance of an agreement, he discharged the jury.

While the jury considering her case was still out, Nan Patterson sat in her cell in the Tombs, buoyed up by the hope that at the end of their deliberation the twelve men would agree to a verdict of not guilty. Miss Patterson's hope were based partly on rumors which were current about the Criminal Court building, that the first ballot taken in the jury room were decidedly in her favor. The jury had had the case since shortly after 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

During the afternoon the jury sent to the court rooms for articles of clothing worn by Caesar Young at the time he met his death, and the skeleton which was exhibited during the trial by the prosecution in its endeavor to show that the victim of the tragedy could not have inflicted the wound himself.

At 1.35 the jury, recorder and other court officials had assembled in the court room. Recorder Goff demanded to know why Nan Patterson was not present, when he was informed that she was ill. He gave orders directing that she be produced immediately.

CHARGE TO THE JURY.

Recorder Goff in his charge to the jury said:

"You must not think that, because of the humble position of this woman, you should not give her the same consideration as if she occupied a more exalted position in society. Whatever her position, she is entitled to the same legal rights as the most prominent and most conspicuous.

The recorder described the two degrees of murder and manslaughter in the first and second degrees, which, he said, he apprehended by the request to charge, was thought by counsel to be applicable in the case, and proceeded:

"I understand that there is no claim on the part of the defense that if the defendant committed this homicide it was either justifiable or excusable. I also understand that the defense claims that the crime was murder in the first degree or nothing. But you are not bound to accept the arguments of counsel as to the nature of this crime. You are the judges of the facts, if there was murder, and in what degree. The crucial question is, 'Did the man kill himself or did this defendant fire the fatal shot?'

"If the accused fails to take advantage of her privilege to make a defense, under advice of her counsel, her failure to do so must in no way be held against her.

NEED TO PROVE MOTIVE.

"Much has been said relating to the motive which actuated this defendant," he continued. "The prosecution claims that she shot the man because he had cast her off as his mistress. But it is not necessary to prove motive to convict of murder. If it is shown that a motive existed, then it tends to support the circumstances. But to do this motive must be proved, not imagined."

Before giving the case to the jury Recorder Goff ruled on the requests to charge interposed in Miss Patterson's behalf. He refused to submit one of the requests, saying that it would be a direction to the jury to acquit the defendant. He told the jury, however, that they might disregard the testimony of Julia Smith if they thought it right to do so. He also refused to charge requests concerning Pawnbroker Stern and the failure of the defense to call J. Morgan Smith. He said that claims on either side were not to be considered.

No. ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL RALEIGH N.C. 11.

NEGROES AND WHITES LOCKED IN SAME CELL.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, in last Saturday's issue, says that the Asylum is much crowded and that negroes and whites are confined in the same rooms or cells. Is it possible that those whose only campaign capacity, and stock in trade, is to yell "nigger," could be guilty of such indiscretion, not to say crime?

If this had happened under Fusion or Republican rule, how the nigger calamity organs and the ballot box-stuffers would have set up a howl! They would have cried out for red shirts and shot guns to protect the purity of the white race.

But what a lecture the editor of the News and Observer would like to read to the reporter of the Charlotte Observer—He would like to tell him that when such indiscretions happen under Democratic rule that it is the duty of all "good Democrats" to suppress the truth.

What a shame and a crime against "Democracy" that the truth should accidently leak out! Indeed the people don't know half of the truth.

And what a reflection upon the Republican party and what a misfortune to the whole State that there is not a first class Republican or independent paper to tell all the truth!

Every good citizen regardless of party would like to know the truth and all the truth.

THE RIOT OVER PIE.

The Raleigh Post seems surprised that the Waddell and anti-Waddell factions in Wilmington came near having a riot over the distribution of "pie." This is a perfectly natural and logical sequence of the other riot in Wilmington. The last great riot in Wilmington was instigated by the hunger and thirst of Waddell and his thugs and red-shirters for pie.

The "brave and gallant" Waddell (God save the mark),—that is the cowardly humbug Waddell made a speech (great on speeches and little on fighting) in which he said that they would dam up the Cape Fear river with the dead bodies of Russell, Butler and all others who stood in in their way to the pie counter. They did actually commit murder by shooting defenceless voters in the back till they got to the pie counter. Then Waddell at once had his salary as mayor nearly doubled at the expense of the tax-payers in order to give him a support, which he was either too lazy or incompetent to earn at honest work.

Now, we learn from Democratic papers that there has almost been a riot in Wilmington between Waddell's red shirters over a division of the pie among themselves. This is to be expected. They are reaping what they sowed.

But what a shame on the good people of Wilmington that they must have such a humbug as Waddell for their mayor!

This is the same "brave and gallant" Waddell who showed the white feather during the late war, "Col." Waddell indeed! He deserted his regiment and ran and hid behind a boom proof the first time there was any real fighting to do.

He is the kind of coward and hypocrite who will talk loud when there is no danger, but will never be on hand when a real man of courage is needed. He is the kind of professional office seeker who will be always on hand to try to seize the biggest office when pie is to be divided, so as to force honest people to support him with their taxes.

It is to the credit of Wilmington that there has developed a strong anti-Waddell faction, even if it did develop around a pie counter.

MR. WASHINGTON DUKE.

After a long and useful life Mr. Washington Duke died in Durham last Monday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. He had been in failing health for some time and the end, though sad and much deplored, was not unexpected.

Eighty-four years ago Mr. Duke was born in that part of Orange county which is now included in the county of Durham. His parentage was humble, but highly respected, and from poverty to affluence he has worked himself up by honest and unremitting toil, perseverance and economy. By se means he built for himself a large fortune from which he has given largely to the schools and colleges of our State, and to charity and to charitable institutions. The amounts given for these purposes by him will never be known for they were given for sweet charity's sake, and not for the sake of newspaper notoriety or public commendation.

The consciousness of having helped the needy, and bettered mankind by his living, was ample recompense for Mr. Duke and he was quite willing to leave off the paid newspaper notices which often follow the donations of others.

Mr. Duke was of a quiet gentle disposition, always liberal and public spirited. He has been prominent in North Carolina for many years, but that prominence has been attained by the deeds of a busy and unselfish life without any studied efforts on his part to force himself into public notice

Mr. Duke was criticised during his lifetime by a certain class of newspapers and his motives in giving large sums to Trinity and other school were impugned. These same newspapers have waited until his death to tell the truth about him, and are now praising his many kind acts and benefactions

Mr. Duke was for a long time a consistent member of the church and lived a consecrated life!—and in the lattter moments of life showed every indcation that he welcomed the call which allowed him to lay aside the troubles and relinquish the burdens of this life for one of eternal peace, happiness and rest.

THE COTFON SITUATION.

Though there has been some skirmishing in the Cotton Market of late, it is very evident that the real battle remains to be fought.

The bears succeeded in putting the price down some days ago, but it has again advanced half a cent on the pound. However, neither the decline nor the advance has reflected a known change in the environment.

Now, as before, it is perfectly plain that the production of 1904 was in excess of the world's requirements, and the only hope of improved conditions lie in a smaller crop this year.

In such circumstances the trade naturally awaits the government's bulletin concerning the averege. This fateful document will be issued in the first days of June, and we may be sure that opinion will be given a mighty impulse, for better or worse. Unofficial forecasts point to a reduction of fifteen per cent. in the area, but of course these prophesies are mere guess work. However, if the government bulletin should show a shrinkage of fifteen per cent. from a crop of 13,500,000 bales, it would imply a loss of two millions in supply, even if the yield of lint per acre were maintained, which would insure the farmers a fair price for their new crop of cotton as well as for what they now have on hand.

The St. Paul Globe, the only morning democratic daily in the State of Minnesota, has suspended operation for the reason that the party has gone out of business in that State.

This is a sign that the people of Minnesota have decided not to support political imposters any longer.

Is it any worse for a governor to try to keep a man out of jail who had defrauded the government than for a former governor to pardon criminals out of prison who had murdered their fellow men? This is a question for Democrats to decide.

The governor of North Carolina said to the governor of South Carolina, the Wadesboro safe-crackeos must first serve their term in this State.

Democratic politicians are great on making laws, but not much on enforcing them, unless they chance to get a political opponent in their clutches.

And now comes the disagreeable news from Raleigh that the insane department of the State's prison is overcrowded and that the superintendent is forced to lock one negro and three white men in the same cell at night. The superintendent also adds that an addition of any more patients will over-tax the $,5000 appropriation. It would seem that if tney can legally do so, here would be a good place for the prison directors to invest a portion of their surplus—Charlotte Observer.

The Newspapers.

Any man can take a newspaper. It is the cheapest thing he can buy. Every time a hen clucks and has laid an egg his paper is paid for that week. It costs less than a postage stamp, less than to receive a letter. It comes to you every week, rain or shine, calm or stormy. No matter what happens it enters your door a welcome friend, full of sunshine and cheer and interest. It opens the door of the great world and puts you face to face with its people and great events. It shortens the long winter nights. It is your advisor, gossiper and friend.

No man is just to his children who does not give them the local paper.

No man is good to himself who does not take newspapers.—Greenville News.

WHAT IS DEMOCRACY?

The Charlotte Observer Wants to Know. Fairbrother Thinks its a Corpse.

The esteemed Charlotte Observer has an editorial headed, "What Is Democracy?" That is a grave question to be asking just at this time, but if there is anything that gives us pleasure it is to answer questions which a friend propounds. What is Democracy? Well, that altogether depends where you are—and what you want. Out in some parts of the wild and wooly west it is a divine inspiration at the ratio of sixteen to one. It means that the government should own the railroads—fix the freight rates; capture the telegraph lines; control the water works and the band wagon. In some parts of the South this epidemic is still on. In other parts of the country democracy means that anything to get there is all right—all right—and some are of opinion that it means progression, sound money, honesty, capability—but those who believe thus are said to be traitors and other fierce things. In Esopus last summer it meant that if a man was for gold he was all right—but the American people seemed to think that democracy as she appeared just before the funeral was a corpse. And believing it to be so, it was quietly laid away in its grave—and unless some resurrectionist has sought the cadaver it sweetly slumbers.

Now that is what democracy is today. If you want to know what democracy was before the day of adulteration in politics and foodstuffs—in the days when the immortals belonged to the party and were patriots for party's sake and not for pie; the days when Jefferson and the other lads dished out the pure and painless stuph—well we don't know about that so much.

The June Designer

The woman who meditates traveling this summer will be especially interested in the June Designer, which pictures the latest inventions which will add to her comfort. A well written article by Myra Emmons tells how one may make a trip to Europe, spend a month on land and have a satisfying glimpse of six different countries for one hundred and fifty dollars, exclusive of ocean-steamer expenses. Those who want a breath of country air as reasonably as can be obtained will appreciate "The summer Outing," which presents camp life of a most novel character. There are, however, many women who just now are far more interested in the planning of their wedding-gowns than their traveling outfits, and for these are given three pages of bridal costumes, with the addition of outfits for the flower girls and pages The college girl will be pleased with "Dramatics at Vassar," and the school-teacher in search of an appropriate entertainment for Commencement Day will gladly avail herself of "The Daisy party," than which no daintier or more summerlike frolic for little folks can be imagined. All mothers will prefer to any other pages in the magazine the two on which are given lullabies, with charming border of drowsy babies being sung to sleep by the crickets. The Housekeeping article this month carries the readers far away to Scandinavia, where the oddest of domestic methods prevail, and of unusual interest to those who have their own support to earn is the new series by Bertha Hasbrook, "In the Interest of Bread-Winning," the opening one taeating most practically of the "Hand Laundry."

Recreation For May.

Recreation for May presents an entirely different appearance from the old Recreation. Wonderful changes have been made by Dan Beard, the new editor, and the magazine is fast giving promise of being the leader of the out-door publications.

The cover design is from a drawing of Canada geese, by Lynn Bogue Hunt, and is exceptionally strong and attractive.

The leading story is by C. Wm. Beebee, Curator of Ornithology, New York Zoological Park, and is a compcehensive review of new and interesting facts concerning bird life. The article is magnificently illustrated,

Dee Woodward Zeigler, the artist, has written a story on Old Mexico, illustrated by himself and Alden Pierson, a story fascinating because of the keen insight the artist has in the life and manners of the Mexicans.

There is a full complement of fishing and hunting stories, and the departments are unusually large and filled with items of interest to the photographer, automobilist, tennis player, traveler and sportsman.

The Summer Headgear.

"Flowers run riot over the hats for summer," says The Delineator for June. "These trimmings are either very small or very large—big, soft-petalled roses and camelias and peonies, or forget-me-nots, lillies of-the-valley, migonette, peach blossoms of the new flowers, and they are massed in unusual combinations, such as blue, yellow, mauve and green. Garlands and wreaths are the favorite designs, and this form of trimming is practically adapted to the smart tip-tilted or retrousse hat, which is the mode of the season. With this shape the bandeau becomes prominent, a goodly portion of trimming being applied on it when at the side or back.

"Ribbons were never so much used. The narrow widths are formed into tiny flowers, true lovers' knots. Cupid and Marie Antoinette bows, in sel or contrasting colors.

"The basis of some of the most pleasing summer hats is open-work or eyelet embroidery.

"The new straws are shown in a varied assortment of colors, and the question of matching the dress material is quite easily solved."

In the Navy.

An exchange tells of a negro who shouted: "Come up en jine de army of de lawd." "Ise done jined, replied one of the congregation. "Whar did yoh jine?" asked the exhorter. "In de Baptis chuch." "Why, chile," said the exhorter, "yoh aint in de army; you's in de navy."—Peoples Paper.

A CREEPING DEATH.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn, writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores 25c For sale at all drug stores.

However, as it looks now, there are about sixteen species of democracy—each wing believing it is right—and all the time and all the time, the republican party, because of these wild dissensions and these many vagaries which have been nursed into life by true or false prophets, has an increased majority—and the only thing to do is to get the corpse out of the grave, summon a coroners jury and decide for yourself.—Everthing.

The First One.

I loved a girl when I was young,
A girl I dared not try to kiss;
Our love was shy and found no tongue,
But eyes told tales we could not miss.

The years have stretched a lifetime now,
And I have loved more girls than one;
And I have kissed with deepest vow,
And kissed before I knew 'twas done.

And that first girl I never met
After her pigtails coiled her head;
And I can't say my eyes were wet
When someone told that she was dead.

Yet there it is; she is the one,
The only one of women all,
Now that the list is closed and done,
Whom dreams of day and night recall.

Only last night she came to me,
Still silent came, and shy and sweet,
And then I learned what life might be
— Dream-drawn I sought my sweetheart's feet;

I laid my head upon her breast;
Within that haven reached at last,
There came no echo save of rest,
From all the life-long weary past.

To each poor dog his day, we're told;
Of my queer luck here is the bes ;
I dreamed that girl, forgot of old;
Caressed my head against her breast.

TERRIFIC RACE WITH DEATH.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect that in three days I felt like a new man, and to-day I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed. For sale at all drug stores; price 50c.

Unsettled.

"Can you tell me what sort of weather we may expect next month?" wrote a subscriber to the editor of a paper, and the editor replied as follows: "It is my belief that the weather next month will be very much like your subscription." The inquirer wondered for an hour what the editor was driving at when he happened to think of the word "unsettled." He sent in the required amount next day.—Peoples Paper.

SAVED BY DYNAMITE

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross, Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights Two physicians could not her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, oughs and Colds, which eased her cougs, gave her sleep and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. For sale at all drug stores, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

It Depends.

When a poor fellow gets drunk on "licker," he is put in the boose. That is right. It is the only protection the public has. But when a poor fellow gets drunk on horses, ball games, parties or politics, he is allowed to run at will, and the public has no protection —Hickory Times Mercury.

Neuralgia And Other Pain.

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves.

The stabbing, lacerating, darting, burning, agonizing pain that comes from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves, is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia.

They also relieve Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating.

"For many years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia and headache, and have never been able to obtain any relief from various headache powders and capsules, until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They always cure my headache in five minutes time." FRED R. SWINGLEY, Cashier 1st Nat. Bank, Atkinson, Neb.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Safe Crackers Must Serve Term in Anson County.

Governor Glenn stated yesterday that the safe crackers confined at Wadesboro, Charles O'Day and John Fisher, must serve out their sentences in this State before the State of South Carolina will be permitted to carry them away.

This decision was reached after the Governor heard from Governor Heywood, of South Carolina, to the effect that South Carolina, who wants them for several robberies, would not pay the $532 expended by the authorities of Anson county in taking care of the prisoners and giving them medical treatment, as they were shot, while they were being captured near Lilesville. Gov. Heywood wrote Gov. Glenn that South Carolina would wait until the North Carolina courts are through with the men, and asked that the requisition papers be held up until then, when the thieves would be surrendered to officers from that State. This course will be pursued.

FREIGHT AND PASSENGER COLLIDE AT WARSAW.

Both Engineers Jump and Escapes Injuary. Slight Injuries Sustained by Passengers.

Warsaw, N. C., May 9.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon, here, passenger train No. 49, in charge of Conductor Hart and Engineer Charles Divine, collided head-on with the engine of freight train No 18, in charge of Conductor Clifton and Engineer Mann. Both engineers jumped, but sustained no injury; and the freight engine started backwards down the track with no one in the cab, when Engineer Mann ran and jumped on and stopped it.

The collision occurred at the depot in the presence of about one hundred people and created great excitement for a few minutes.

The passengers were badly shaken up; and Mr. Conrad, of the North Carolina Baptist, sustained an injury to his wrist; Robert Flowers, of Clinton, had his shoulder and arm injured; Eugene Hines, of Goldsboro, was cut on the nose by being thrown against a glass door; A. F. Williams, of Kenansville, was thrown a long distance down the aisle and suffered a severe shock.

MUST REGULATE CORPORATIONS

President Roosevelt in a Speech Said the Federal Government Should Assume Supervisory and Regular Function Over Great Corporations.

Denver, Col., May 9.—President Roosevelt in a speeeh last night at the banquet tendered by the chamber of commerce made an unqualified declaration that the federal government should supervise and control all the large corporations. He said: "It is railroads which are only the highways that you need to take into account in dealing with the question of commerce in the state or outside of the state. Therefore, under the changed system, we see highways of commerce grow up, each which is controlled by a single corporation or individual sometimes, or several of them being controlled in a combination by corporations or by few individuals when such is the case, in my judgment it is absolutely necessary that the nation, for the state cannot possibly do it, should assume a supervisory and great corporations which practically control the highways of commerce, as with everything else on this mundane sphere.

When you get the supervisory and regulary power on behalf of the nation you will not have cured all the evils that have existed and you will not equal the expectations of amiable but the ill regulated enthusiast, while he thinks you will have cured all the evils, but in a measure good will come. Some good will have been prevented but we shall be a long way from the millenium."

U. S. Supreme Court Reverses Decision of Supreme Court of this State.

Washington, D. C., May 8 —The supreme court of the United States handed down opinions in two cases from the State to-day, one in which the court of North Carolina was reversed and the other in which Judge Boyd was upheld.

Judge Boyd was sustained and the circuit court of appeals at Richmond overruled in the case of the W. L Wells Co. of Mississippi against the Gastonia Manufacturing Co. and the Avon Mills of Gastonia, which involved a sum amounting to $70,000.

The case in which the supreme court of North Carolina was reversed was that of Balk vs Harris from Elizabeth City, and it involved the juggling of $180 by three Hebrews. The case was one involving nice points, and it brought forth a very lengthy and elaborate opinion by Justice Peckham, despite the fact that only a trivial sum was involved. Two of the justices dissented, Messrs. Harlan and Day, but they did not write out their views.

Charged With Stuffing Ballot Box.

Durham, Special.—W. T. Rigsbee, well known and a respected young man, was arraigned in police court Thursday morning on the charge of ballot-box "stuffing." The hearing was continued until Friday, May 12th. This is the first case of the kind that ever came up here, at least in recent years. The defendant is charged with stuffing a ballot box in North Durham on election day, it being claimed that he put tickets in the box for mayor. The count showed that there were nineteen more tickets in the box than there were people who voted. When this showing was made a warrant was issued for the arrest of Rigsbee, it having been stated that he was seen to put tickets in the box. When Rigsbee heard of the charge against him he telephoned police headquarters and asked if it was so. He was told that there was a charge against him, and he went direct to the station and gave bond in the sum of $500.

North State News.

Superintendent J. S. Mann, of the State's prison, sent out to the judges of the Superior courts the State over a letter calling their attention to the fact that the department for the dangerous insane is overcrowded, the capacity being 49 and 53 on hand—5 white females, 28 white males, 7 colored females and 13 colored males. Having more patients than can be cared for he is obliged to lock four white men and one colored man in the same cell each night. He says he knows this is contrary to the spirit of the law, but it is absolutely necessary to protect the lives of the inmates of the institution. The addition of any more patients will overtax the $5,000 appropriation. He says he feels it his duty to call the attention of the judges to this matter for the reason that an additional patient has just come in from Mecklenburg.

A child of Mr. Charley, who lives near Vashti, Alexander county, fell into a spring Thursday afternoon and was drowned. The child was three or four years old, and the spring was a hollow log or gum set upon end in the water. The child fell head downward and could not get out or give any alarm.

Michael Freeman, the emigration agent, who was arrested in Raleigh for employing negro laborers to carry them out of the State, without having State and county license, the tax being $200, is still in jail here, unable to give the $500 bond that is required before he will be released on bail. A warrant has been received from Johnston county on a similar charge, and should he give the bond here, he would be immediately re-arrested on the Johnston warrant. It developed that he had engaged 150 or more negroes.

Announcement is made that the commencement exercises of the Baptist University for Women, will be held June 4th to 6th, and that the baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. W. M. Vines, of Norfolk, and the missionary sermon by Rev. F. D. Hale, of Wilmington. The literary address will be delivered by Rev. Frank Dixon, of Washington, D. C. The graduating class consists of ten young ladies.

Elaborate preparations are in progress for the observance of the Fourth of July at Guilford battle grounds.

Charles Gilbert, formerly mail carrier between Burnsville, Yancey county, and Ivy, Buncombe count, charged with robbing the mail pouch last January of $2,100 in checks, money and money orders, came into the United States court at Asheville and through his attorney, Ellis Gardner, pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to 15 months at hard labor by Judge Boyd. Gilbert is a white man 30 years of age and of a not overly strong mind. He appeared in court this morning shabbily dressed and appeared to possess little intelligence.

Governor Glenn appoints R. N. Hackett, of Wilkesboro, State's proxy and director of the Wilkesboro-Jefferson Turnpike Company to succeed Col. P. M. Pearsall, resigned. The Governor says the turnpike, which is between Wilkesboro and Jefferson, is within four miles of the top of the Blue Ridge mountains now, and the work is being pushed rapidly. A well financed syndicate, he says, has been looking over the road recently with a view to purchasing it and constructing in connection with it a good electric line, both for passengers and the developing of lumber interests, which are among the finest in the country.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Taxing bachelors may not boost the matrimonial game, but it is apt to encourage emigration.

After reciting "Cerfew Shall Not Ring Tonight" at school a girl imagines she is a born elocutionist.

Though too proud to work, many a young fellow is willing to accept free board and lodging from his parents.

Almost any girl can induce a young man to accompany her to church, but it isn' quite so easy to persuade him to accompany her to the altar.

Poet's Tranquil Evening of Life.

Swinbourne, the poet, spends his declining years in tranquil pursuit of the simple life, although it is doubtful whether the book or the fad has ever disturbed his peaceful retreat. A friend says of him that he lives in possession of his needs. "Bounded on all sides by the best books, enjoying the close companionship of the truest friend ever given to a man of genius, and finding in a long walk at postman's pace a full satisfaction for the body's craving after exercise, he lives through the twilight of his days in a greater security and under the spell of a deeper peace than he knew in the boisterous dawn of his life."

When the American cruiser New Orleans came into San Francisco Bay on January 27, on her way from Guam to Mare Island to be paid off and go out of commission, she sported a homeward-bound pennant 550 feet long.

Ocean Steamer Sunk.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., Special.—The steamer Aransas, Captain Rood, of the Joy Line, was sunk in a collision with the barge Glendower, one and a half miles southeast of Pollock Rip lightship Sunday night. One life was lost. The survivors reached this port in the lifeboats of the steamer. The Glendower was in tow of the Reading Railroad tug, bound east from Philadelphia. The Aransas sank almost immediately after the collision, but it is said that the tow kept on. Sixty-five persons have been landed here.

Her Crew Mutinied.

When they found out that the British steamship Brinkburne, at San Francisco, was loading a contraband cargo for Vladivostok, all her officers, the captain excepted, resigned. The Chinese crew also attempted to get ashore; but the customs officers had something to say as to that.

Private Car Lines.

The railroads seem very willing to have the private car lines brought under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission. A railroad President is authority for the statement that lines are paid mileage, without discrimination, and the question of excessive charges is a matter for the shipper to settle with the car lines, so long as there is no law to govern their rates. Car mileage paying has been decided to be as legal as the payment of rental for property.

HOUSEHOLD ACCOUNTS.

Keeping accounts may be a little troublesome, but it is quite worth while.

Have just one book, rather thick, that will do for everything. Turn the front part into a cash account. Open the book out flat, write down your allowance on the left-hand page, and on the right put down what you have paid the butcher, baker, etc.—everything even to a postage stamp. Then once a week, or oftener, balance.. Balancing is nothing harder than subtracting the total of the money you have spent from what you should have in cash.

When you have been keeping accounts for some time you will realize as you never did before what your money goes for. Keeping accounts is of helping you to make money, but it does help you to find out how to get the most for your outlay and how to balance your needs with your income.—New York Sun.

Kept Record of Rainfall.

A Pittsfield man who makes his diary his hobby notes that not a drop of rain fell on the 31st day of any of the months last year. On every other day of the month some time during the year there was a precipitation. The record for the year shows that the total fall for the year was 36.66 inches. This is about 10 inches under the average.

COFFEE HEART.

Very Plain in Some People.

A great many people go on suffering from annoying ailments for a long time before they can get their own consent to give up the indulgence from which their trouble arises.

A gentleman in Brooklyn describes his experience, as follows:

"I became satisfied some months ago that I owed the palpitation of the heart, from which I suffered almost daily, to the use of coffee (I had been a coffee drinker for 30 years), but I found it very hard to give up the beverage.

"I realized that I must give up the harmful indulgence in coffee, but I felt the necessity for a hot table drink, and as tea is not to my liking, I was at a loss for awhile, what to do.

"One day I ran across a very sensible and straightforward presentation of the claims of Postum Food Coffee, and was so impressed thereby that I concluded to give it a trial. My experience with it was unsatisfactory till I learned how it ought to be prepared—by thorough boiling for not less than 15 or 20 minutes. After I learned that lesson there was no trouble. Postum Food Coffee proved to be a most palatable and satisfactory hot beverage, and I have used it ever since.

"The effect on my health has been most salutary. It has completely cured the heart palpitation from which I used to suffer so much, particularly after breakfast, and I never have a return of it except when I dine or lunch away from home and am compelled to drink the old kind of coffee because Postum is not served. I find that Postum Food Coffee cheers and invigorates while it produces no harmful stimulation." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

Ten days' trial proves an eye opener to many.

Investigation of the Packers.

Very general interest has been manifested in the Government investigation now in progress into the mode of conducting business by the large packers located in Chicago and elsewhere. Much has been written upon the alleged illegal and improper modes of business procedure connected with the packing industry; but it seems that so far no definite charge of any kind has been sustained and no proof of illegal or inequitable methods has been disclosed to the public. While a wave of severe criticism of this great industrial interest is now passing over the country it might be well to remember that the packers have had as yet no opportunity to make specific denial, the many indefinite charges of wrong-doing having never been formulated so that a categorical answer could be made.

The recent report of Commissioner Garfield, which embodied the results of an official investigation undertaken by the Department of Commerce and Labor of the United States, was a vindication of the Western packers, but this result having been unexpected attempts in many quarters to discredit it were made.

In view of the situation as it now stands, however, attention may properly be called to a few facts that owing to popular clamor are now being apparently overlooked. Fair treatment in this country has heretofore been accorded to all citizens whose affairs assume prominence in the public eye and some of the facts that bear upon the relation of the packers to the commerce of the country may at this time be briefly alluded to. It would be difficult to estimate the benefits gained by the farmers of the country resulting from the energetic enterprise of the packers, for whatever is of benefit to the farmer is a gain to the entire commerce of the country. And connected with their continuous aggressive work no feature perhaps has been more important than their efforts in seeking outlets all over the world for the surplus products of the farmer. Our total exports of agricultural products have gained but little in the past twenty years, and leaving out corn, the total of all other farm products was far less in 1903 than in 1891. But in packing house products there was considerable gain during this period, because an organized and powerful force has been behind them seeking new and broader markets.

Besides the benefits reaped by farmers on account of the enterprise and energy exercised by the packers in attaining commercial results by foreign trade, the great development in the manufacture of packing house by-products has added enormously to the value of all live stock raised in the United States. The waste material of twenty years ago, then an expense to the packer, is now converted into articles of great value and, as an economic fact, this must correspondingly increase the value to the farmer of every head of cattle marketed at the numerous stock yards of the country. Let these facts be remembered while now it is so popular to regard the great packing industry as deserving of condemnation. At least it must be admitted that, so far, there is no adequate reason for the almost unanimous howl that may be heard everywhere in the face of the Garfield report above alluded to which practically exonerates the packers from the obscure and indefinite charges that have been for some time past made the subject of popular comment.

No one can look more solemn than Satan.

PRAISE FOR A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, my monthly periods started; I am regular and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave to-day.

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

BUNNY GAVE HER A SURPRISE.

Mrs. Edgell Found Cottontail Rabbit Sitting Up Behind Stove.

When Mrs. Nellie Edgell stepped into the sitting room of her home, in Thoroughfare Neck, she was astonished to see a cottontail rabbit sitting up behind the stove, says a Lewes, Del., dispatch.

She held our her hand and called persuasively to Bunny, but he dashed around the room in a panic. She opened the door and the rabbit hid under the farmhouse.

How bunny got into the sitting room was a mystery until Mr. Edgell picked up a log to put in the big stove. The log was hollow. Bunny had crept into the log and had been carried into the house.

The winter here has been so severe that hundreds of rabbits and squirrels and partridges have been found dead from exposure

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored

LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee.

Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use "a tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:

1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.

2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.

DON'TS 3 { Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. Don't use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.

2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.)
